Appearance and Reality The Two Truths in the Four

July 31st, 2009 - All buddhist tenet systems are stating two truths the conventional and the ultimate truth The author examines these views on conventional and ultimate reality which "while ascending from Hinayana schools to the Geluk consequentialist school " become more subtle and so harder to understand I've always thought that this division is a mere categorization for its own sake To be honest I've found buddhist ontology always a bit too enthusiastic in categorizing objects subjects
